

MOMENT of TRUTH

Bill Jemas • story Mark Bagley • pencils
Scott Hanna • inks Hi-Fi • colors Sharpefont's PT • lettering

September 11, 2001.

Anthony and Phaedra Savas have lived in the City of New York all of their lives. Astoria, Queens has been their home since 1965. All three of their children live and work nearby.

Their son John works at the Federal Reserve Bank, their daughter Sandra works at Tiffany & Co., and their daughter Tina at Marvel Comics.

Tony is 72 years old.

For 15 years, Tony has been a building inspector for the Port Authority. He has seen the neverending construction and renovation that is the city-within-a-city known as the World Trade Center.

On September 30, Tony's body was recovered alongside those of several firefighters. They were found in a collapsed stairwell in the ruins of the Towers.